

FIBRE AND FABRIC 2 (VII)NCERT

1. Fill in the blanks:-
 - (a) The hairy body coat of sheep and goat is called_____.
 - (b) Shaving off the body coat of sheep is called_____.
 - (c) Cleaning of fleece to remove dirt and grease is called_____.
 - (d) The process of separating hair of different texture from the fleece is called_____.
 - (e) The rearing of silk worms to obtain silk is called_____.
 - (f) _____is the process of separating silk fiber from cocoons.
 - (g) The silk thread is made up of_____.
2. Name two natural plants and animal fibres?
3. List main process involved in making wool from fleece?
4. What is sericulture? Name the plants on which silk worms feed. List main four types of silk.
5. What are sorters diseases? What are occupational hazards?
6. Describe various stages in the life cycle of a silk moth and draw the life cycle?
7. What is selective breeding?
8. Lohi,Nali,Bakharwal found in which state and the quality of the wool obtained?
9. What is the scientific name of mulberry?
- 10.Name the animal source from which angora and pashmina wool obtained?